

UnitedLex has redefined the way legal and business support services are delivered. We meld core disciplines into legal-specific solutions: 1) management consulting; 2) process improvement; 3) technology utilization and; 4) data analytics. Our resources are drawn from a global team of more than 2,000 professionals with hands-on experience and access to an uncapped research and development budget.

We transform the Law Department from a cost center to a business partner that combines strategic engagement and cost management.

In short, we help Law Departments set their vision and strategy, develop and implement operational improvements, and report quantifiable results. Our team of industry domain experts is comprised of strategists, financial analysts, process improvement specialists, technology experts and project managers. Our integrated expertise provides the General Counsel with ideas, tools and resources that position their departments to achieve strategic business objectives.

We move beyond conceptual recommendations by delivering services that drive change.

Our resources enable the Law Department to focus its efforts in a more intentional, strategic manner. Our team translates strategy into action and implements necessary change, delivering our services with a sense of urgency that matches the speed of your business. Solutions combine law department management expertise with highly-skilled, professional technologists who leverage our global footprint to provide high-quality services across multiple time zones—at a competitive price point.

With relentless commitment to client success, our experts deliver business impact.

Our team has helped transform Fortune 500 law departments, resulting in significant cost savings and operational improvements. We have also restructured departments to support dramatic growth and changing business strategy without additional resources. Our experts have established Legal Centers of Excellence to enable greater consistency, across autonomous business units and cost savings of up to 20%. We have designed technology strategies to justify investment in systems that improved legal services to the company. And we have developed Outside Counsel programs that aligned cost with a defined risk profile, achieving hundred of millions of dollars in cost savings ranging from 10% - 25%.

Our Services Deliver significant, measurable impact on the Legal Department and the overall enterprise.
